

Arturo Lachica

Deputy Commissioner
Bureau of Customs

A lawyer and Certified Public accountant by profession, Mr. Lachica has been with the CESB since 2006. Prior to that, he spent six years at the Civil Service Commission where he rose from the ranks and became Regional Director for the Autonomous Region in Muslim Mindanao and taught law at the Notre Dame University College of Law in Cotabato City. He holds a BS Commerce, Major in Accounting degree from the Claret College of Isabela in Basilan and his Bachelor of Laws degree from the Notre Dame University in Cotabato City.

Regulatory Reform Programs

Atty. Arturo M. Lachica, CESO II

Deputy Commissioner

Revenue Collection Monitoring Group

Bureau of Customs

REGULATORY REFORM

PATTERN OF GOVERNANCE CHALLENGES

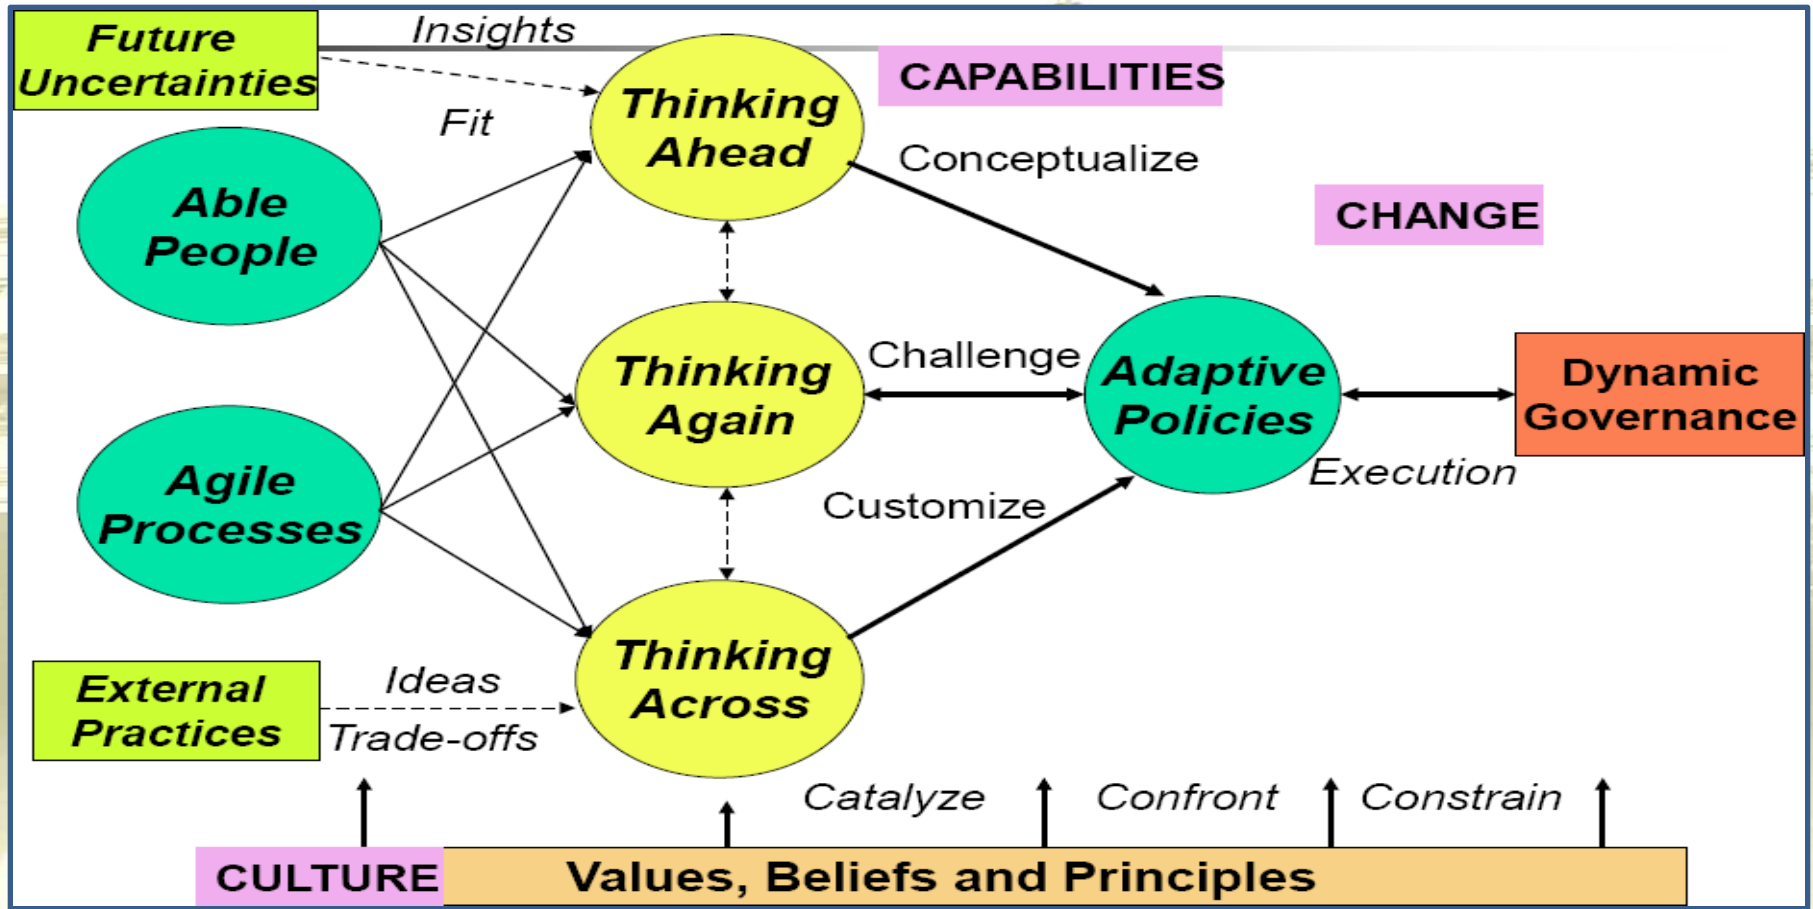

- Uncertain and unpredictable global environment
- Rapid pace of technological innovations quickens obsolescence of past policies
- Evolving Citizenry who are more educated and with greater access to global developments
- Increasing complexity of policy issues

Dynamic Governance by Prof Neo Boon Siong

REGULATORY REFORM

FRAMEWORK FOR DYNAMIC GOVERNANCE

Dynamic Governance by Prof Neo Boon Siong

REGULATORY REFORM

CHALLENGES FACED BY THE BUREAU OF CUSTOMS

- Outdated if not Obsolete provisions of Customs Law
- Attainment of revenue collection target
- Streamlining customs procedure for secured trade facilitation
- Eradicate smuggling
- Continuity of the Reform Programs
- Private Sector Vigilance and Participation
- Reinforcement of professionalism, integrity, honesty, transparency and public accountability in BOC's internal administration

REGULATORY REFORM PROGRAMS

- Electronic-to-Mobile System (e2m)
- Philippine National Single Window
- Super Green Lane (SGL) Plus
- Philippine National Single Window Phase 2
- Integrated Enhanced Customs Processing System [IECPS]
- BOC Regulated Import List
- Authorized Economic Operator

REGULATORY REFORM PROGRAMS

CURRENT STRATEGIC RESPONSE TO REFORM CHALLENGES

- PEZA Transshipment CMO 8-2015
- Revised rules on E-Manifest for Sea Freight CMO 19-2015
- New rules on the issuance and lifting of Alert Orders
- Paperless processing system
- Decongest ports

“Great leaders set their standards by the highest standards, not by what others may or may not be doing.”

- Rick Joyner

THANK YOU