

APICS Chooses TransProcure as Philippine Partner

APICS and TransProcure to Deliver Education Programs to Supply Chain and Operations Management

Manila, Philippines, October 4, 2011 -- APICS, The Association for Operations Management has partnered with Transprocure Corporation, the leading supply management solutions and services provider as their new Authorized Education Provider in the Philippines. TransProcure leverages its presence in the market by providing a total end-to-end supply management service that includes the entire range of strategic initiatives and transactional processing. On the other hand, APICS, which is based in Chicago USA, is the global leader and premier source of education and training in supply chain and operations management.

APICS, together with TransProcure will now offer certifications, courseware and workshops that will cater to supply chain and operations management professionals in various industries. APICS certifications, which are recognized worldwide, include the "Certified in Production and Inventory Management" (CPIM) and the "Certified Supply Chain Professional" (CSCP). These certifications equip today's professionals for the ever changing marketplace, and of course open doors to better opportunities. On top of these, courseware & workshops in operations management, lean enterprise, and enterprise resources planning will also be offered.
